1. JACOB MAAS¹ MOSS was born on 20 Aug 1816 in Canach, Remich, Luxembourg. He died on 11 Jul 1899 in County Home, Trumbull Co., OH. He married Johanetta SCHMIT, daughter of Daniel SCHMIT and Maria Francisca RONCK, on 02 Nov 1837 in Canach, Remich, Luxembourg. She was born on 05 Apr 1810 in Canach, Remich, Luxembourg. She died on 06 Jan 1889 in Mineral Ridge, Trumbull Co., OH.

Notes for Jacob MAAS MOSS:

The family name in Luxembourg was MAAS. It became Americanized to MOSS. Probably due to pronunciation, the name can be found under many other spellings. Also the place of birth is recorded in many census's as Holland or the Netherlands. When the Moss family immigrated to America, Luxembourg was under the control of the Netherlands. This caused many years of genealogical research in the wrong country.

Rose Moss Vinon had come to her grandfather's home with her dad, Matthew Moss of Columbiana County. She said her grandpa was a strong man and could carry two sacks of potatoes on his shoulders which greatly impressed her. She said the the lower side of the property was all garden and the upper side was fruit trees. She said that grandpa Jacob sold fruits and vegetables which helped him support himself and his wife in their old age.

In the 1860 US Census, Weatherfield Twp., Trumbull Co., OH: J. Morris age 46 is a furnace hand. His wife is Ann, age 57. Children are: Nicholas, 19; M., 17; Mathias, 14; Poddy, 9; Dan, 22, collier. All born in Holland. Property value, $250. and personal property value, $50.00. M653, Roll 1041, p273: FHL film 805041, visit 1052, 1055

The 1870 US Census, Jacob Moss, 59, coal miner, from Holland and his wife, Ann, 61, keeping house. The real estate value was $1000.00. The real estate is now owned by their great,great,granddaughter, Mary Lou Moss Godleski. She purchased it in 1990 for $15,000.00. The house was condemned.

In the 1880 US Census, Weathersfield Twp., Trumbull Co., OH: Jacob Moss, age 67, works in Coal mine, born Netherlands; and wife, Hannah, age 70, born Netherlands. Film 1071, p433B

"Jacob Moss, aged 86 years, died Tuesday evening of dropsy at the county infirmary. His remains were Wednesday taken in Niles for interment, the funeral taking place at St. Stephen's church."

The Chronicle, Warren, OH, July 19, 1899; Wed.

Note: If this article is correct, did Jacob die on the 11th or 18th of July?

In the naturalization records for Trumbull County, Ohio, Jacob Morse. arrived Jan 1855 from Holland and was naturalized. It does not give a date but I find the spelling of his name interesting and provides the ability to search more spellings. More than Maas or Moss.

Notes for Johanetta SCHMIT:

The sponsors at Johanneta's baptism were: Martinus Gadela and Johannata Goeweling. They were both from Canach, Luxembourg.

Death record has her name as Ann Moss, age 76 born Germany and died in Mineral Ridge. She had asthma. Vol 2, p373, Trumbull Co., OH

THE PARISH COMMUNITY OF ST. PATRICK HUBBARD, OHIO

OUR FAMILY TREE 1865-1972

The story of St. Patrick's parish begins in 1865 when a group of Catholics, mostly of Irish and German background, a group including Michael Pigott, Daniel Moss, George Young, Leopold Lump, Patrick Heffernon, Michael Mugent, and John Clancey, persuaded Father Eugene O'Callaghan, pastor of St. Columba's parish in Youngstown since 1861, to take Hubbard as a "station". Father O'Callaghan, a ranging six foot tall man with a dark beard and piercing eyes, had only been in America since 1847, but in those years he had graduated from a new little college in northern Indiana called Notre Dame, had attended St. Mary's seminary in Cleveland, and had been ordained in the priesthood in 1859. While pastor of St. Columba's Father O'Callaghan was in charge of three missions and many stations, for he was the only priest within fifty miles of Youngstown. He used to walk or ride horseback from Youngstown to Hubbard to say Mass in the home of Mr. Pigott, at the corner of what is now Henry Street and north Main (in the old Kelly home). When Father O'Callaghan made his trips to Hubbard, he often stayed at the home of Nicholas Donie.

Notes for Mathew MAAS MOSS:

The birth record show the name as Mathias, born the 21 Mar 1846 to Jaques Maas, a day laborer who is 31 years old and Nanetha Schmit, his wife who is 38 years old. According to some records his birthday was 16 Mar 1846. It is not clear which date is correct?

The ship's records show that Mathew was 8 years old when he boarded the ship in Antwerp. Then he arrived in America, it was the new year, 1855. It is difficult to know how Mathew and his brothers felt, leaving their home, playmates, and maybe grandparents all behind. It is even difficult to comprehend how they accepted the burial of people at sea, knowing that one was their little brother.

Mathew was living at home with his brothers and parents at Mineral Ridge in the 1860 Census. The census indicates that no one in the family can read or write English, but Mathew who was 14, and Paddy (John), who was 9, were attending school. In 1870, the Census shows that Jacob and Anna were living alone in Mineral Ridge. Mathew seemed to have been forgotten by the census taker that year. The next entry chronologically, was a priest's diary found in the Hubbard Library which has an entry of $150.00 an acre paid to Mathew Moss for land to be used for the church cemetery. The date was 24 July 1872. It seemed that all of the Moss boys owned land in Hubbard and were settling there. It was not to be for Mathew.

A record of a marriage of Mathew Moss to Mary Holcomb (sp) has been found in Mahoning County. The date of marriage was 18 Dec 1871. Mary Hopkins is the daughter of John and Anna Hopkins.

In the 1910 US Census, Washingtonville, Mahoning Co., OH: Charles Vignon, a coal miner, age 27, born in Ohio and his parents were born in France. His wife, Rose, age 26, born in Ohio and her parents in Germany and Wales. They were married 4 years and have one child. They have a son, Elmer, age 2, born in Ohio. Also in the household is farther-in-law, Matthew Moss, a widower, age 65, born in Germany. He has no occupation and lives on his own income. (He really was born in Luxembourg.). T624, Roll 1211, ED 83, p2A

Matthews Moss, aged 70 years, died last Friday evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Vignon. Mr. Moss had been in poor health for several months and was confined to his bed the last two months. He had been a resident of this place for about 30 years. Mr. Matt Moss

The sad part of last weeks news was the death of Matt. Moss. He did not have church record back of him and probably died because Ohio is a "wet" state, yet Matt left a large and reputable family, and died without a known enemy. In the late 1930's, my parents bought a farm on "rent to own". This farm was old and neglected. It was not a great piece of property. The whole place needed fixing, every where you looked. There was no electricity down the whole road. There was no running water or bathrooms. Need I say more. My grandpa Jake came to see the farm. His recommendation was: Put a match to it. Well we could not do that. So as a young girl, my brothers and I learned a lot from our parents about restoration.

The Mahoning Dispatch, Canfield, Ohio, 8 Sep 1905

Mrs. Lizzie J. Bell, wife of William Bell, ages 25 years, 27 days, died at her residence in this city Aug. 30. Mrs. Bell came to Tombstone about a year ago seeking relief from that dreaded disease, consumption. The remains were shipped this morning to her old home in Washingtonville, Ohio, and accompanied by her husband and her sister, Miss Mae Moss. During their short stay in this city Mr. and Mrs. Bell had made many friends, who extend to the bereaved and sorrowing husband and bereft sister their entire sympathy. Tombstone (Arizona) Prospector.

The remains reached Washingtonville at 3:30 Sunday afternoon accompanied by her husband and sister, Maye and the corpse was waked at the home of her father, Matthew Moss, until 10 o'clock Monday forenoon, when funeral services were conducted in the Methodist church by Rev. J. E. Russell, who delivered a consoling and highly satisfactory address suitable to the occasion from Isaiah 1xiv, 6, "We all do fade as a leaf." The Foresters lodge, of which Wm. Bell is a member, attended services in a body, and the floral offerings of cut flowers were both numerous and appropriate. Interment was then had by the side of her infant son in Oakland cemetery west of town, the remains being followed by a long concourse of relatives and friends in carriages. Elizabeth J. Moss, the subject of this sketch, was born in West Austintown, Aug. 2 1880, and was united in marriage with Wm. Bell Oct 1, 1900. About a year ago her health had so declined that they decided, as a last resort, to locate in Arizona, where Mr. Bell worked in the silver mines and hoped without hope for her recovery. But the inevitable was reached as above stated. The relatives who attended the funeral were John Moss and Matthew Moss, jr., and wife of Deerfield; Edward Lawton and wife of Lisbon; Emil Schindler and wife of East Palestine; Misses Rose and May Moss; Jacob, Chas., Daniel and David Moss. All the brothers and sister of the deceased were present except Lemuel Moss of the U. S. naval squadron at Newport, R. I., who could not obtain a leave of absence. The other relatives here were John Hopkins with his son Lemuel and wife of Teegarden; George Watson, wife and daughter Mary; Henry Brooks and wife of Amsterdam; William Zimmerman, Scott Herbert and Sol Shines with their wives from Salem, Jos. Bell of East Palestine; James Martin and Robert Bell. Friends were also present from Lisbon, New Waterford, East Palestine, Beloit and East Fairfield, showing the high esteem in which the deceased was held at home and abroad.
